

Jodilynn Fitzgerald

21h ·

From George Stoddart at our Water Treatment Plant:

The Village of Mingo Junction uses 2 ground water source wells both at least 30 feet and more below the bottom of the river bed. There is no need for concern at this time about water contamination from the East Palestine rail disaster.

Our water is protected and sampled for all contamination and is safe at this time. There is no boil order or any other restrictions that are needed. Thank You